NPPR - 2012 Annual Meeting Concluded

Nepal Portfolio Performance Review (NPPR) annual meeting was held in Kathmandu on 24 January, 2013. This annual event was jointly organized by Government of Nepal (GoN) and Development Partners (DPs) for a meaningful dialogue on strengthening Portfolio Performance in Nepal. The theme of this year’s NPPR is “Portfolio Performance for Development Results”.

Addressing as the chief guest of the meeting, Hon. Finance Minister Mr. Barsha Man Pun said that Nepal has been the beneficiary of aid money for over six decades from all quarters, but the results have not been achieved up to the expectations. He underscored the need of consolidated efforts of GoN and DPs to review what went wrong; identify the issues ahead and accordingly plan for the future so as to make the best use of aid money. He emphasized the need of harmonization in donor strategies and procedures, alignment with Nepal’s budgetary processes, strong system of mutual accountability, and appropriate financial management and reporting system for performance-oriented, result-based aid management. He assured DPs that the present government is determined to address the challenges in the areas of governance and anti-corruption.

Chairing the initial session of the meeting, Mr. Janak Raj Shah, Hon. Member, National Planning Commission (NPC), said that NPPR meeting is a worthy opportunity for GoN and DPs to review the work progress of foreign aided projects and programs. He requested all DPs to join the NPPR mechanism for effective utilization of their fund. He assured the DPs that the GoN is committed for aid effectiveness of the country and for this it is trying to improve Public Financial Management (PFM) through a continuous process. In the meantime, he informed that NPC has initiated the process of drafting next Three Year Plan with a long term vision “Building a Prosperous, Peaceful and Just Nepal”.

Speaking in the program, on behalf of the DPs, Ms. Tahseen Sayed, Country Manager, the World Bank Office, Nepal, focused on the challenges of...
The Government of Nepal (GoN) has always accorded high priority to the effective use of resources received through foreign assistance. For the same reason, Nepal Portfolio Performance Review (NPPR) meeting is conducted every year to review status of ongoing projects, discuss the issues that come across during the course of implementation of projects, and find the ways to overcome such issues. For the effective implementation, the meeting comes up with an agreed action plan charting out time bound actions. Put differently, this meeting is also a key dialogue mechanism between the GoN and DPs to focus on the overall aid effectiveness issues, particularly localization of Busan outcomes.

The forum was initially started in 2000 with three DPs - WB, ADB, and JICA - as core members. DFID joined the forum in 2006. Since then, it has been expanding over the years with seven DPs - ADB, WB, JICA, DFID, EU, Norway, UN - in 2011. In 2012, four more DPs - Denmark, USAID, IFAD and Australia- joined the forum to expand the number to eleven. Currently, Switzerland has also applied for core membership. The GoN is expecting other DPs also participate as core members in the days to come. Seen from thematic perspective, there are five thematic areas: Public Financial Management, Public Procurement, Human Resource Management, Managing for Development Results (MfDR), and Mutual Accountability. In 2012, four more sectors namely Local Governance, Roads and Transport Management, Agriculture, and Energy are incorporated in the mechanism making a total of nine areas. This shows a considerable expansion of scope and importance of NPPR.

Organizing an event is not everything. Ultimately, what counts is the result through which we can measure the effectiveness of any event. In this regard, NPPR has proved to be an important mechanism focusing on few doable and measurable actions. Additionally, through this mechanism, both the GoN and DPs have meaningfully shared the common experiences on project implementation so as to come up with concrete action plan for the further reform in order to unlock the implementation issues. The NPPR Action Plan - 2011 has yielded satisfactory results. Out of 26 actions and 52 performance indicators, 29 indicators were completed, 16 indicators were progressing and 7 indicators were not completed. To be more specific, Public Financial Management area was rated as highly satisfactory area. Management for Development Results and mutual accountability were on satisfactory level. Similarly, Public Procurement and human resource management were on unsatisfactory level in terms of action plan implementation in 2011. This scenario reveals the mixed results, and further draws the attention of all concerned for the enhanced ownership coupled with additional efforts to achieve the performance indicators at the optimum level.

The Asian Development Bank (ADB) has agreed to provide a grant assistance amounting to US Dollar 15 million (approximately NRs 1263 million) to the Government of Nepal for the implementation of the SASEC Trade Facilitation Program. An agreement to this effect was signed and exchanged at the Ministry of Finance on 25 February 2013 between Mr. Madhu Kumar Marasini, Chief of IECCD, Ministry of Finance and Mr. Kenichi Yokoyama, Country Director, ADB, on behalf of the Government of Nepal and ADB, respectively. absorptive capacity, a possible lack of realism while preparing the budget and delays in budget approvals that have to be resolved for unlocking the implementation issues. Showing her concern on frequent transfer of staff, particularly secretaries and key project officials, she also said that retention of senior officials in key ministries and in districts means better project implementation and faster results. She expressed the urgency for strengthening key institutions (such as OAG and CIAA) and possible alternatives in the absence of Public Accounts Committee.

Mr. Kenichi Yokoyama, Country Director, NRM, ADB made a presentation on overall portfolio situation of DPs funded projects focusing on GON capital expenditure, recent trend of DP assistance and portfolio performance. He mentioned that overall capital expenditure is generally low and there is significant risk of further reduced expenditure in FY 2013. He further mentioned that portfolio performance was in positive trends over the years 2010-2012. However, he outlined a number of issues like high turnover of key staff, slow disbursement, procurement and capacity constraints in new projects, timeliness of audit submission and quality of audit, high fiduciary risk, absence of oversight mechanism, and prolonged lack of full budget. NPFR Coordinator, Mr. Kailash Raj Pokharel had made presentation on progress details of NPFR - 2011 Action Plan. He presented overall progress of NPFR - 2011 as satisfactory.

Chairing the second session of the meeting, Chief Secretary, Mr. Leela Mani Paudyal, requested the DPs not to mobilize aid outside the government system. He drew the attention of donors that aid accountability becomes stronger if aid is mobilized through government system. He said that accountability can not be maintained well outside the GoN system. He further said that GoN still has strict mechanism of governance and accountability in place. Speaking on transfer of officials, he requested DPs not to take it as a major issue because new officials are equally capable in handling their responsibilities. In the meantime, Mr. Paudyal instructed the nine thematic groups, who made presentations in his presence, to come up with revised NPFR Action Plan that is in line with the GoN’s Immediate Action Plan for Governance and Economic Reform, 2012.
